

Attentive

Week of May 15, 2016

LIFE IN CHRIST

Life in Christ • Ephesians 5:1-20 • Message 6

Ephesians 5:1-20 (p. 816)

What do you think about the fact that Jesus died not just for you but as an act of obedience, sacrifice, and surrender to God?

When you read the list of behaviors to avoid, what stands out to you?

What does it mean to hate what God hates?

When you read the list of behaviors that Christians should be doing, what comes to mind?

What does it mean to love what God loves?

In a world like ours, what does it mean to "expose" the "darkness"?

At the end of the passage, Paul encourages us to wake up, be alert, and to make the most of our opportunities. What do you think that means for us today?

Take it Home

After reading Ephesians 5:1-20 is there something about your life that you want to change? Is there something that you need to spend more time thinking about?

How should Christians handle it when people in the world are embracing things that God opposes?

How should Christians handle it when other Christians are failing to represent the love and goodness of God?

Attentive

Week of May 15, 2016

LIFE IN CHRIST

Life in Christ • Ephesians 5:1-20 • Message 6

Ephesians 5:1-20 (p. 816)

What do you think about the fact that Jesus died not just for you but as an act of obedience, sacrifice, and surrender to God?

When you read the list of behaviors to avoid, what stands out to you?

What does it mean to hate what God hates?

When you read the list of behaviors that Christians should be doing, what comes to mind?

What does it mean to love what God loves?

In a world like ours, what does it mean to "expose" the "darkness"?

At the end of the passage, Paul encourages us to wake up, be alert, and to make the most of our opportunities. What do you think that means for us today?

Take it Home

After reading Ephesians 5:1-20 is there something about your life that you want to change? Is there something that you need to spend more time thinking about?

How should Christians handle it when people in the world are embracing things that God opposes?

How should Christians handle it when other Christians are failing to represent the love and goodness of God?